AMBER McCRAY

HEAD COACH

@CoachA_McCray

Amber McCray enters her sixth year as the head coach of the Louisiana Tech Volleyball program. The former Florida All-American was named the 10th head coach in the program's history on December 12, 2018.

In 2023, the Bulldogs swept Jacksonville State on the final weekend of the season to qualify for the CUSA Tournament for the first time since joining the league in 2013. Jailen Hurley earned CUSA Offensive Player of the Week for her performance against the Gamecocks, the first weekly honor for a Bulldog since McKenzie Johnson in 2021, and just the second time ever in CUSA. Grace Krohn became just the second Bulldog to earn a spot on the CUSA All-Freshman Team, joining Johnson. With her final dig against Grambling, Johnson became the fastest Bulldog to reach 1,000 career digs.

LA Tech built some momentum coming out of the 2022 season that saw the program register 11 wins, the most since 2019. Four of those came against Conference USA action, including two 3-0 sweeps of Charlotte and UTSA, to match the most CUSA victories in a single season since 2016. The team came one win shy of qualifying for the CUSA Tournament for the first time in program history, a goal they are set out to do in 2023.

The momentum carried over from a nine-win season in 2021, which saw a number of statistical improvements, most notably in team attacks per set (37.83), which ranked 17th in the country, and in digs per set (16.54), which ranked 34th in the nation. The uptick in digs was thanks in large part to Johnson, who earned Second Team All-Conference USA honors, the first Bulldog to be named all-conference since 2017.

In the split 2020-21 season, Johnson was one of nine newcomers who joined the program along with Morgan Smith, who anchored the team in blocks in each of the last two seasons.

LA Tech tallied an overall record of 13-15 in McCray's first season at the helm in 2019, including a blistering 11-4 start to the season. The hot start included a stretch in which the Bulldogs reeled off eight wins in nine matches while claiming two tournament championships -- Sam Houston State Invitational and the LA Tech Invitational.

The team improved statistically in several categories, including more kills, assists, aces, and blocks per set than in 2018 while returning many of the same student-athletes. The 2019 team also committed 99 fewer errors than the prior year.

Under McCray's leadership, the program has also excelled in the classroom, earning the USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award four times, 69 Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recipients, and 13 Academic Medalists.

McCray came to Ruston after building Panola College into a nationally ranked program. She led the Fillies to 169 wins and two National Junior College Athletic Association national tournament appearances (2016, 2017). In three other seasons at Panola, she was one win away from the national tournament.

McCray spent eight seasons at Panola — six as the head coach — earning conference Coach of the Year honors in 2014 and 2016, Region XIV District H Coach of the Year honors in 2016, and Region XIV District I Coach of the Year honors in 2017. She guided the Fillies to a seventh-place finish in the national tournament in 2016 and a ninth-place finish in 2017.

The 2016 team won 35 matches and was ranked No. 1 in the country in the NJCAA Division I polls over the final three weeks of the season. It marked her second 30-plus-win season at Panola, as the 2015 team also accomplished the feat — the program's first in over a decade.

During her time at Panola, McCray coached 28 First or Second team Region XIV All-Conference performers, 19 Region XIV academic all-conference honorees, and two NJCAA All-Americans. Panola volleyball had a 100 percent graduation rate for volleyball student-athletes enrolled at the school through all four semesters during McCray's tenure.

McCray spent two years as an assistant coach at Panola (2011-2013) prior to being promoted to the head coaching position in 2013. She also spent eight years coaching club volleyball teams in east Texas.

As a student-athlete at Florida (2003-07), McCray was a two-year captain and a member of five straight Southeastern Conference championship teams (including a medical redshirt season). She was a member of the team that advanced to the national championship game in 2003. She was named Second-Team All-American in 2006 and two-time all-Southeastern Conference in 2006 and 2007.

McCray also excelled off the court, earning ESPN The Magazine 2nd Team Academic All-American honors in 2007, ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors from 2005-2007, and the SEC Academic Honor Roll from 2004-2007. She was nominated to represent the entire UF athletic program at the NCAA Leadership Convention in 2006, and her efforts in the Gainesville community earned her a spot on the SEC Community Service Team in 2007. As a senior, McCray also received the Tracy Caulkins Award, which was presented to UF's top graduating female student-athlete who possesses the traits of academic achievement, athletic achievement, leadership, and community involvement.

McCray was a decorated three-sport athlete for Pine Tree (Texas) High School, becoming the state of Texas' first two-time recipient of the Gatorade High School Volleyball Player of the Year Award in 2001 and 2002.

ALEX HOLT

ASSISTANT COACH

@alexanholt

Holt, who joined the coaching staff on April 1, 2022, enters her third season as an assistant coach for the Louisiana Tech volleyball program.

LA Tech carried the momentum from the 2022 season into 2023 and qualified for their first Conference USA Tournament in program history. Under Holt's guidance, the Bulldogs finished with 277 block assists, the most since the 2019 season.

Her presence was felt in year one with the program as LA Tech built momentum after registering 11 wins, the most since 2019. Four of those came against Conference USA action, including two 3-0 sweeps of Charlotte and UTSA, to match the most CUSA victories in a single season since 2016. The team came one win shy of qualifying for the CUSA Tournament for the first time in program history, a goal they are set out to do in 2023. Holt was responsible for helping develop the Bulldogs blocking game that finished the season with 216 total blocks, their most since 2010, and 110 solo blocks, the sixth most in a single season in program history.

Holt came to Ruston from Cisco College, where she served as an assistant coach for two seasons. During her time at Cisco, she assisted in technical and physical training, identified prospective student-athletes, managed statistical operations, and designed social media content across all platforms for the volleyball program.

Holt trained middle blockers, right sides, and the team blocking system at Cisco. In 2021, two student-athletes received all-conference honors, and the team produced an 18-win season.

Prior to coaching at Cisco College, Holt played at Pacific from 2014-2019, competing on both the indoor and beach volleyball teams. Holt was named the team captain in her final season with the Tigers. In her senior season, she played in all 29 matches and finished her career with 399 kills and 167 total blocks.

The Sacramento, California native graduated with a bachelor's degree in social sciences and a minor in teaching professions in 2018. She received her master's degree in the fall of 2019 in educational and organizational leadership from Pacific.

AYDEN BATLETT

ASSISTANT COACH

Louisiana Tech volleyball head coach Amber McCray announced the hiring of Ayden Bartlett as assistant coach.

Bartlett comes to LA Tech after spending four successful seasons playing libero/defensive specialist at Louisville.

While with the Cardinals, she helped guide Louisville to its most successful four-year run in program history. The Cardinals were 105-12 during that time, including three consecutive ACC championships and the first two trips to the NCAA Final Four in the school's history. Louisville finished the 2022 season as the NCAA runner-up.

Bartlett played in 293 sets over 103 matches during her career, accounting for 385 digs and 43 service aces. Her best season came during her sophomore campaign when she saw action in 105 sets with 171 digs and 22 service aces. The Cardinals started the season 32-0 before falling to Wisconsin in the NCAA semifinals.

The Leavenworth, Kan. native has spent time coaching during Louisville Volleyball Camps and with KIVA Volleyball Club.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

@DrJBHenderson

Dr. Jim Henderson became the 15th president of Louisiana Tech University on Jan. 1, 2024. His ties to the institution go back more than 80 years when his father, Clem Henderson, was recruited to play for famed Louisiana Tech football coach, Joe Aillet. His mom, Martha, was a two-time Tech grad.

Henderson previously served as the president and CEO of the University of Louisiana System, one of the nation's largest University systems. As the longest-serving UL System president, he led the Universities of Louisiana in the creation of a strategic framework that charged its member institutions to produce the most educated generation in Louisiana's history. Through various Systemic initiatives such as Compete LA, the Reginald F. Lewis Scholars, and the challenges associated with a global pandemic and fiscal uncertainty, he developed a notion of System that will continue to benefit each of the nine institutions for decades to come.

Henderson also served as president of his alma mater, Northwestern State University, where he reinvigorated student life and campus culture leading to the highest enrollment in the school's 135-year history. Before taking the helm of NSU, Henderson served as chancellor of Bossier Parish Community College. During his tenure, the institution ranked among the five fastest growing colleges in the nation for five consecutive years.

In 2012, Henderson was named a Northwest Louisiana Business Hall of Fame Laureate and in 2017 he was inducted into Northwestern State University's hall of honor, the Long Purple Line. Henderson holds a master of science in administration from University of West Florida and a doctor of management from University of Maryland—University College. In 2010, he completed the Institute of Educational Management at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. He currently serves as the Chair of the Board of Visitors of the Marine Corps University.

The smartest decision Henderson has made is marrying his college sweetheart, Tonia who founded her own media company after a successful career in advertising. The Hendersons have three children, Reagan, Nicholas, and Alexander who is majoring in chemical engineering at Louisiana Tech; and four grandchildren, Zachary, Miguel, Maria, and Lucille.

RYAN IVEY

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

@rivey35

Louisiana Tech University President Dr. Jim Henderson introduced Ryan Ivey as Vice President and Director of Athletics in front of a packed Club Level at the Davison Athletics Complex.

Ivey comes to Ruston with more than 18+ years of experience in intercollegiate athletics with the past 11 as an athletics director at Stephen F. Austin, Austin Peay, and Texas A&M-Commerce.

"The Louisiana Tech athletics brand is synonymous with excellence. When you think about the student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and teams that have called this University home, it is really astounding. We have an opportunity to build upon, grow and establish future success," Ivey said. "Our goal will be to build a nationally prominent athletics department with individuals that excel in everything that we do. We will be relentless in our pursuit of excellence, respecting those that have come before us, but building and charting our own path and successes. Now is the time to be part of this amazing University and department!"

He spent more than five years in Nacogdoches, Texas at SFA, leading the department through a conference transition from the Southland Conference to the Western Athletic Conference, raising private support that included the launch of the Purple Lights Fund that helped secure the four largest single gifts in the department's history, and increasing ticket sales by 189 percent.

He also helped complete more than $30 million in facility improvements including the Loddie Naymola Basketball Performance Center, a 42,000-square foot building that houses offices, locker rooms, weight room, training room, and practice courts for the SFA basketball programs. Other construction improvements included a baseball indoor pitching facility, beach volleyball competition facility, indoor golf practice facility, soccer locker room renovations, and more.

Under his leadership, the Lumberjacks celebrated 18 conference championships, three NCAA Tournament appearances, and the 2019 Bowling National Championship won by the Ladyjacks after going a perfect 4-0, defeating top-ranked Vanderbilt in the title match.

Prior to joining SFA, Ivey spent three years (2015-18) at Austin Peay in Clarksville, Tennessee, overseeing the department of athletics and its 16 sponsored sports.

While at the helm of the Governors, he helped raise $6.5 million in gifts which were funneled into facility improvements and the athletic departments budget on top of increase football and basketball ticket revenue a combined 39 percent.

While at Austin Peay, the Governors posted several accomplishments on the court/field including two postseason appearances by men's basketball in 2016 and 2018, an eight-win season by football in 2017 that tied the program record for single-season victories reached some 40 years prior in 1977, and a volleyball program that claimed both the Ohio Valley Conference regular season and tournament titles.

His first Director of Athletics position came at NCAA Division II Texas A&M-Commerce. During his two-year stint with the Lions, the athletic programs experienced new heights by winning six team Lone Star Conference championships in the 2014-15 season, the most ever in Lion Athletics history.

In particular, the football program secured back-to-back winning seasons and postseason appearances for the first time since 1990, seeing a 160 percent increase in attendance and a record number of season tickets sold.

Along the way, he helped drive in more than $2.8 million in facility enhancements, including a $1.4 million softball field that saw a first-year program in 2015 finish with a winning record and gain a spot in the Lone Star Conference tournament. He also created the Lions Athletic Club, the fundraising arm of Texas A&M-Commerce Athletics.

Ivey's first work experience in the state of Louisiana came at McNeese where he assumed the role of assistant athletic director for internal affairs with his efforts primarily focused on growing corporate sponsorship revenue for the Cowboys and Cowgirls.

He spent six years in Lake Charles, the last three of which were as associate director of athletics where he continued his work in revenue generation while overseeing operations for all 16 of the institution's athletic programs.

Under his guidance, corporate sponsorship yield over $750,000 before accepting his first athletic director position at Texas A&M-Commerce.

Prior to breaking into athletic administration, Ivey served as the director of basketball operations for the Memphis women's basketball team from 2005-07, which followed a short stint as an athletics marketing coordinator at the University of South Dakota.

Following his graduation from Memphis in 2004, Ivey secured a position with the Memphis Redbirds – the triple-A affiliate of the MLB's St. Louis Cardinals – as a stadium operations assistant.

A student-athlete at Memphis, Ivey suited up for the Tigers' football team for four years as the squad's punter and holder. Most notable, Ivey held or Lou Groza finalist and eventual three-time Super Bowl champion Stephen Gostkowski.

Ivey earned both his bachelor's (sports management, 2004) and master's (sports and leisure commerce, 2010) from the University of Memphis.

Ivey is married to the former Kelley Holt from Fayetteville, Tennessee. The couple has two sons – Jett and Ace.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT RYAN IVEY

Tommy McClelland, Rice Vice President and Director of Athletics

"I commend Dr. Henderson and the committee on an outstanding hire. Ryan Ivey is one of the most well-respected athletics administrators in the entire country. He has demonstrated success every place he has been. Having worked alongside Ryan for over five years, I can attest to his work ethic, leadership, and vision for an athletics department and its student-athletes. More importantly, he is a wonderful person, husband, and father. Ryan, Kelley, Jett, and Ace will be great additions to the Ruston Community. He is a perfect fit for Louisiana Tech!"

Brian Thornton, Western Athletic Conference Commissioner

"Ryan has proven to be an exceptional leader and even better person. During his time in the WAC, he was a huge contributor towards our goals building the league into a premier conference. He is a tireless worker who is always willing to roll up his sleeves and jump in whenever needed. It won't take long for Ryan to have a pulse on how to take LA Tech to the next level!"

Jamie Boggs, Grand Canyon Vice President of Athletics

"Ryan is one of the best in the business. He is a culture-builder, a strategic thinker, and a selfless, humble leader. He will invest in the people and community at Louisiana Tech and he will move every area forward. Congratulations on an outstanding hire."

Jeremy McClain, Southern Miss Director of Athletics

"Congratulations to Ryan and Louisiana Tech … this is a great hire for all involved! Ryan Ivey is one of the most genuine leaders in our industry and will positively impact everyone around him. His track record of success at multiple institutions speaks for itself, and that experience will allow him to be a difference maker in Ruston."

Graham Neff, Clemson Director of Athletics

"I could not be more excited for Ryan and the LA Tech Family – a perfect fit! Ryan's reputation as an innovator that 'gets it done' will be invaluable leadership for the Bulldogs. I am very proud and happy for the Ivey's."

Wren Baker, West Virginia Vice President and Director of Athletics

"I have known Ryan Ivey for many years and have been very impressed with his incredible track record of building successful programs and leading with integrity. He is respected throughout intercollegiate athletics and has proven to be particularly successful at hiring talented coaches and administrators. Louisiana Tech is a tradition-rich program and I look forward to watching Ryan help add to the storied history at LA Tech."

Brent Jones, Troy Director of Athletics

"I am extremely happy for Ryan on being appointed Director of Athletics at Louisiana Tech. LA Tech has an illustrious history of success and Ryan is the right person at the right time to lead Bulldog Athletics into the future of intercollegiate athletics. I have known Ryan personally for almost 20 years and he is a man of character, integrity, vision, and passion. He will do an amazing job and continue to build upon the great work of Eric Wood and Tommy McClelland."
